Prayer to St. Oliver Plunkett

"Glorious Martyr, Oliver, who willingly gave your life for your faith, help us also to be strong in faith.

May we be loyal like you to the See of Peter. By your intercession and example may all hatred and bitterness be banished from the hearts of Irish men and women.

May the peace of Christ reign in our hearts, as it did in your heart, even at the moment of your death. Pray for us and for Ireland. Amen".

Consistency

An elderly woman died recently. Having never married, she requested that her coffin should be carried by women, not men. In her handwritten instructions for her funeral, she wrote: "they wouldn't take me out while I was alive, so I certainly don't want them to take me out when I'm dead."
